KICHWA TEMBO TENTED CAMP - Place of the Elephant*

Overlooking endless, game-filled plains and shaded by dense forest canopy, this oasis of classic safari tents nestles below the Oloololo Escarpment on the western boundary of the Maasai Mara reserve. Each spacious tent affords total privacy and the privilege of sweeping views over the greatest grassland system on earth. But it is the breathtaking sight of more than a million wildebeest and zebra braving the turbulent Mara River in their stampede towards the northern grasslands each July to September for which Kichwa Tembo is most renowned. Witnessing this ancient and often tragic spectacle is a profoundly stirring experience.
